

Giggle Poets at IRA

"They did it again! Robert Pottle, Kenn Nesbitt, Eric Ode, and Bruce Lansky had the audience laughing and learning at their IRA Symposium in Chicago."

I had such a great time meeting teachers from all over the country. You can learn more about my school visits at robertpottle.com.

After the Symposium many teachers asked if there was more information about the Creative Poetry Web Activity I presented. Yes, and here it is:

The finished Creative Poetry Web with the poem it inspired.

Also be sure to read this Article stressing the importance of modeling the early stages of the writing process. It also describes how to conduct the Creative Poetry Web activity in your classroom.

I can't wait to see everyone again next year!
