

Half

A few months ago I promised a funny poem movie. Then things got a bit crazy here with redesigning lolpoetry.com and starting up the new site gigglepoets.com . (Actually, I'm working on yet another new site, but it's not quite ready yet.)

Anyway, the first funny poem movie is ready! I think it was worth the wait. And even better news is that I have three more funny poem movies that are almost done. Look for those this fall.

This funny poem movie is for a new school poem called Half. This poem does not yet appear in any book. Click any of the links here that say: funny poem movie to see it.

This funny poem movie is now in Flash movie format and should play on any computer.
